DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-7 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by van Ee et al. US Patent 6,774,813 B2 (hereinafter van Ee).

4. As per claims 1 and 3, van Ee teaches a method of enabling to program a control device for control of an apparatus, the method comprising:

enabling the control device to detect a representation of an identity of the apparatus

[column 6, lines 41-62];

enabling to communicate first data representative of the representation to a service via a data network [column 6, line 62 – column 7, line 2]; and receiving second data for programming the control device with control commands for the apparatus [column 7, lines 3-16].

5. As per claim 6, van Ee teaches a programmable remote control device comprising circuitry for determining data representative of a controllable apparatus and for communicating data to a source external to the device [column 6, lines 41-67].

6. As per claim 2, van Ee further teaches the method wherein the first data is representative of a control signal for control of the apparatus [column 6, lines 40-43].
7. As per claim 4, van Ee further teaches the method wherein the determining comprises contacting a third party for acquiring the set [column 6, lines 60-67].
8. As per claim 5, van Ee further teaches the method further comprising communicating the set to at least on other control device [column 7, lines 1-17].
9. As per claim 7, van Ee further teaches the method wherein the circuitry comprises a capturing circuit for capturing a control signal for control of the controllable apparatus for determining the data [column 6, lines 32-51].

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO form 892.
